Benny Pointer realizes that study and research are a must in order to maintain good grades . . .

. . . while Roderick Lee does a little research of his own. I wonder what kind of grade he'll get from Brendalyn Sparks . . .

. . . Chris Hudson doesn't have that small talk problem. Sandra Downs has given him the O.K. and he takes it from there. It's all in a days work!!

The flag is a most important part of our school day. School just couldn't begin without first giving honor to this great country in which we live.

An early morning workout is just the same. The idea: get hot and sweaty, then come into the "ice box" school. The day is beginning to roll.

Marching brightly to school is Miss DUNBAR-Joselyn Brewer. With books in hand and smile on face -- she's ready to begin the day.

Everyone is not fortunate enough to have all that knowledge stored in their heads, but these three are. Books aren't necessary when you're just naturally smart!!

...And then there's the night of the big football game.
The WILDCATS come on the field...

...And we put Shakespeare, vectors, angles, debits, credits, equations, formuli, and sonnets in abeyance and rooted for the Blue and White.

"Los chicos guapos" "Les beaux garçons"

Whether the language is Spanish, French or English, these are apt expres

Ask any girl on campus the good qualities of our campus beaus, and you'll hear descriptions such as "Lovers", "cool", "outta sight", and "sexy-looking". And if that's not enough, try "masculine", "built", "dark", "mustaches", "cute", "that certain something", "indescribable", "really good-looking". Well that's what it takes to fill the shoes of a campus beau.

These are the ideal ones in the eyes of the Wildcat girls. These are the Casanovas of tomorrow, the Sidney Poitier's of Dunbar. These are the "Soul Society" of P.L.D.'S "in" crowd.

Yes, thirteen may be an unlucky number for many, but these thirteen young men are the ones that have the girls of Dunbar, "Going in Circles."

"Las chicas guapas"
"Les belles jeunes filles"

sions which describe the belles and beaux of Dunbar.....

Of course you have to be nice looking, but your "Personality", "complexion", "figure", "coiffeur", and "appeal" are the extra features that helped the guys of Dunbar in their selection of Campus Beauties. Style is a must if you desire to be a beauty. "Dimples", "big legs", and a "well proportioned size" are the little extra extras that the fellas admire in the young ladies.

These are all very fortunate and very attractive young ladies. Indeed a good choice!

It is said that beauty is in the eyes of the beholder. The 1969-70 Campus Beauties are truly sights to behold.

Skill, know-how and a steady hand make for a perfect turn-out. Vincent Tatnall, Wildcat editor, possesses and exhibits these fine qualities.

A Message From

The Editor

The achieved performances in character-building and citizenship have exceeded into its thirteenth year of progress. The challenge by Dunbar Blacks to enhance scholastic standing and display its effect is an ensuring trait of prosperity.

The Wildcat '70 Staff have exhausted time with planning and hard work to enliven the life of Dunbar students. By injecting feature pictures and exposing talent which has not been recognized, we are capable of capturing a new look.

"Style" has been added in this publication to brighten the pages so that a glow will appear on one's face as he thumbs through.

I hope with these new elements it will inspire the students to venture beyond better. Be Best!

Two Teachers Who Are A Part of, Yet Apart from, the Dunbar Student Body

JoAnn Lewis is in charge of a lotta merchandise at Edison's in beautiful downtown Fort Worth.

And Roland Suiters takes charge of the cash register at Leonards.

Students in VOE and DE earn three ways: credits for graduation, salaries, and valuable experience which may lead to a life-time profession.

Keeping the shelves of Safeway stocked is Joe Jackson. Joe has been an employee for two years and he is still going strong.

And speaking of stocked shelves, Sandra Alexander has her hands full . . . of books, thanks to the Fort Worth Public Library.

William Cook, a salesman at Spartan's, keeps his RIGHT GUARD up because of a SECRET: BAN won't wear off as you stay CALM.

Typing is a of Iris Turner

Diane Tate feels it's a snap to sell kiddies underwear at Sears.

Hidden talent

David James does his "thang" with IBM computers. They are both employed at the Fort Worth Branch of FAA.

Ex-student gives pointers in salesmanship and general business to Betty Castle. Betty is employed at Cook's Department Store.

Mr. J. Martin Jacquet,
Principal

..... Meeting with Student Council President
Calvin Harris.

A day in the life of the Principal is a busy one. No day is identical. There are the various administrative meetings at the Central Administration Building. There are the "private consultations" with those students whose behavior hasn't reached the desired level. And then, there is...

..... Meeting with Mrs. M. C. Peterson, Vice Principal and Mr. J. A. Williams, Vice Principal.

.....Observing Brenda James, NMSQT Semi-Finalist, as she operates the computer. Mrs. B.L. Lee, computer mathematics teacher, looks on.....

.....Meeting with student publications editors Marzena Lewis and Vincent Tatnull.....

.....Greeting Mr. Marvin Harris, Eastern Hills principal.

Mrs. R. A. Williams, VOE Teacher and Vincent Tatnull, Wildcat Editor, prepare to get a first hand look at David James on the job.

Mr. Williams vice-principal, while talking to a friend, was utterly stunned by the fumbling of a kickoff return.

Before the game Mrs. Grier, and two of the cheerleaders practice doing "their thing" at the football game.

"Twins my eye!"

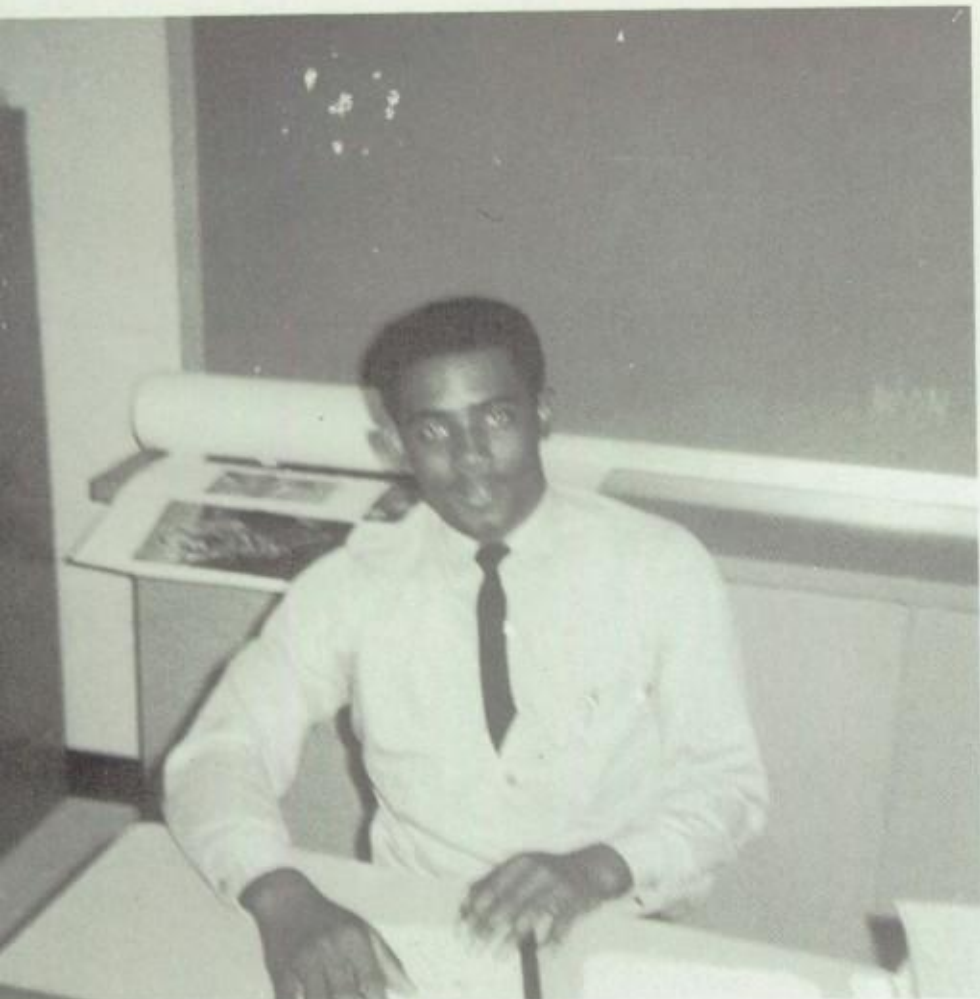

"Malcolm Rice, Dunbar boys wear their shirts tucked in"

"I've got a secret. Stephen Lee thinks I'm a WILDCAT!"

"I hereby suspend you boys indefinitely".

Danny Price, Wildcat business manager, relaxes as the last advertising lay-out is readied for publication.

If Sgt. Sparks could see Danny now with his blouse unbuttoned. . . .

"Let the sun shine in" muses Danny as he works in the publication office.

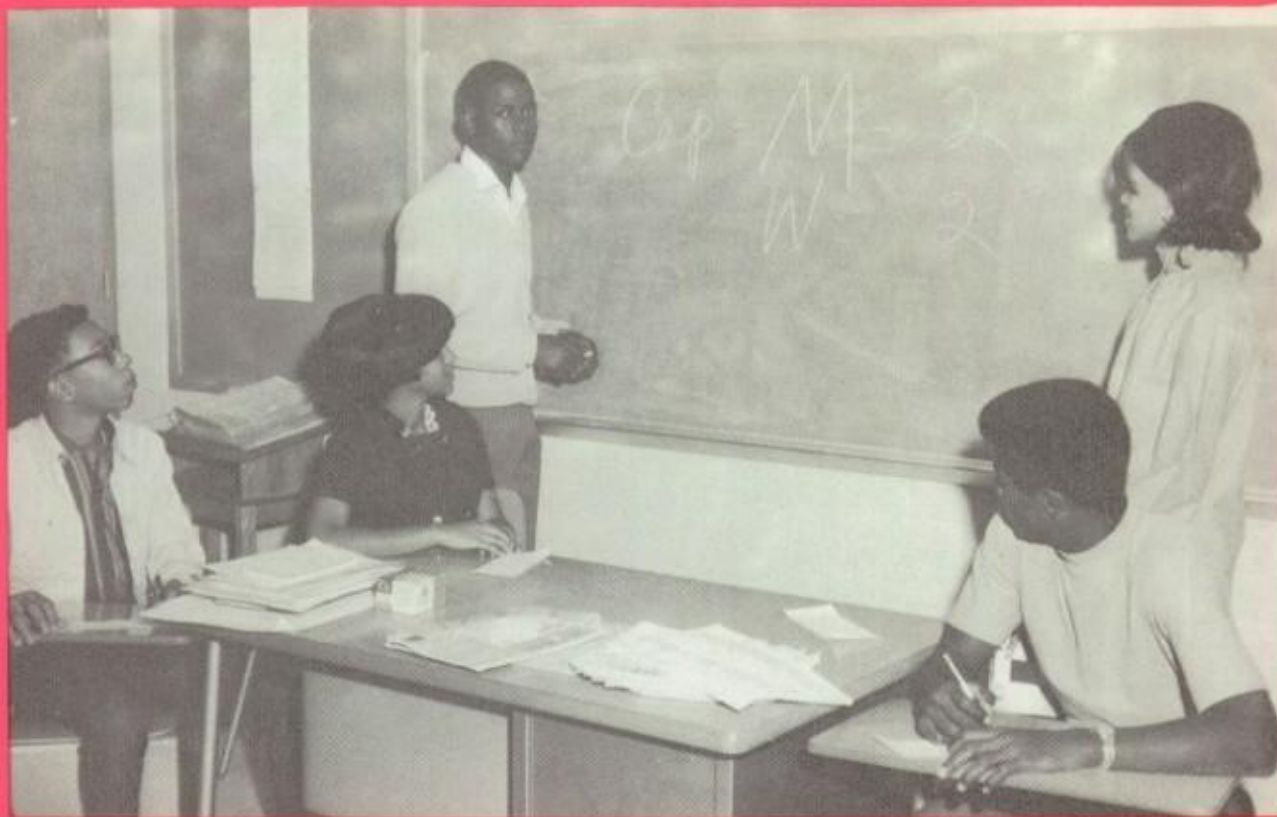

"But Vince, I've drawn that same lay-out five times"

ACTIVITIES

Togetherness is the happening in the J-Class. It is not the dedication of one, but the sacrifice of many. We feel thankful for our informative position at our school. Collective contributions of many, make each page, the news that IS Dunbar.

Most Versatile Boy and Most Versatile Girl

Calvin L. Harris
and
Carol Marie Williams

Athletics, scholarship, leadership, musicianship, adaptability, creativity, ingenuity, resourcefulness, friendliness, abound in singulars and plural around Dunbar.

Competing for these titles were Michael Jones, Horace Young, Sandra Akins and Mary Jenkins

Most Studious Boy and Most Studious Girl

Victor Battles
and
Brenda James

The Class of 1970 has a large number of students who've combined scholarship with extra-curricular activities. No "book worms and egg heads" are students. They are just as likely to be found planning for a big weekend date as they are to be found pouring over a problem in trigonometry. Nominated for these titles were Janice Baker, Barbara Smith, David Matlock, Melinda Freeman and Anell Thomas. Not pictured are Uria Lester, Larry Fair and Robert Swain.

Most Likely to Succeed

Marzena Lewis
and
Michael Jones

Success is a relative thing. However, each individual aspires for some of the overt signs of the successful man: satisfaction in his chosen profession; a degree of financial security; a happy and wholesome family life; mental and physical well-being.... Within the next decade Dunbar seniors of the Class of 1970 will be contributing members of the American society.

Nominated for these titles were Melinda Freeman, Horace Young, Theresa Powell and Janice Baker. Not pictured are Madeline Allen and Freddie Pulliam.

Best Dressed Boy
and
Best Dressed Girl

Paul Guinyard
and
Dietra McGregor

They don't all shop for Botany 500s or Jonathan Logans; And shopping at the local prestige stores isn't their bag-- but whatever they wear, Dunbar lads and lassies are always conscious of good grooming.

Vying for these titles were James Fields, Eric Stots, Juana Woods, Mary Jenkins, Dwight Gilmore and John Stewart Peterson.

Most Attractive and Most Handsome

Nanette Parker
and
Eric Wayne Stots

Choosing Dunbar's most attractive girl and most handsome boy can be analogous to deciding whether Estelauder has a better scent than Trivari...

Vying for these titles were Freddie Pullum, Janice Baker and Vincent Tatnull. Not pictured are Sandra Long, Alicia Bell, Shelia Williams and Joselyn Brewer.

Ideal Boy and Ideal Girl

David Matlock
and Yvonne Jackson

Sophistication. Erudition. Traits viewed as the epitome...Models representing what for the Class of 1970 are ideal students. Nominated were Robert Swain, Theresa Powell, Victor Battles and Robena Jackson. Not pictured are Marzena Lewis and Robert Williams.

Most Popular Girl and Most Popular Boy

Nanette Parker
and
Freeman Evans

Just mention their names and the entire Dunbar population know whom you mean. Mention a name to them, and chances are they know of whom you speak. Nominated for these titles were Mary Jenkins, Paul Guinyard, Robert Swain, and Ronald Eugene Lewis. Not pictured are Shelia Williams, Marzena Lewis, Grover Session, Johnny Baylor and Joe Patterson.

Nominated for these titles were Robert Williams, Horace Young, Carol Williams, and Mary Jenkins. Not pictured are Carrie Siphon and Orville Shaw.

Most Enthusiastic Girl and Most Athletic Boy

Renetta Jarmon
and
Ronald Eugene Lewis

A cast of hundreds could have played this role. Whether its volubility at an athletic contest, fierce determination in several of the sports on campus, or just pride in the WILDCATS--each of the 235 seniors is a winner.

Most Talented Girl and Boy

Joselyn Brewer

Judge McGriff

Most Pleasing Personalty

Janice Baker
David Matlock

ROTC SPONSORS

Pictured below are twelve of the fifteen Dunbar lassies who compliment the hundreds of male students enrolled in ROTC. Marilyn Williams, Karen Jarmon, Janice Baker, Nanette Parker, Lynn Robertson, Annjeanette Barnes, Robena Jackson, Sharon Fittsgill, Artie Harris, Anell Thomas and Deitra McGregor provide that bit of female glamour desired in the ROTC armory.

STARS OF TOMORROW

When the need arises for dramatic productions, the STARS can always be counted on to give entertaining performances. Pictured below are eight of the approximately 60 members of one of the most popular clubs on the Dunbar campus. Herman Dansby, Patricia Roberts, Velma Pllum, Bennie Pointer, Claudia Hackney, Charlotte Fuller, Patsy Hadley and Janice McHenry pose with faculty sponsor Mrs. S. D. Williams.

Hey fellas! One at a time.

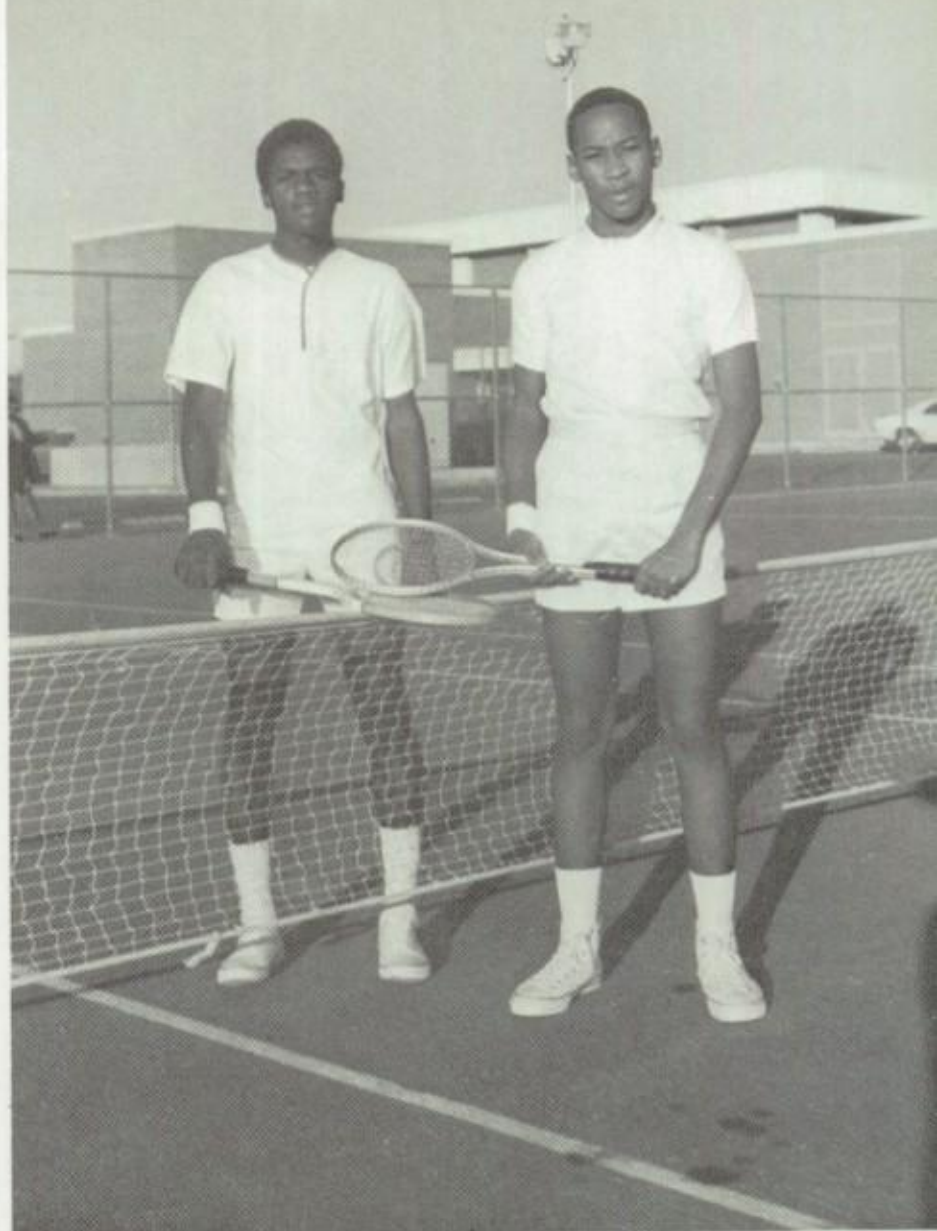

1970 SWIMMING TEAM

This may seem to be a beauty contest (top left), but it's just Dunbar's newly formed Swimming Team. Swimming, although other schools have had it for years-not until this year-became a competitive sport at Dunbar. This (center), just shows them in action, building for the future.

Shelia Williams, holds the title of 1969-70, team
SWEETHEART and is the only participating girl member...

Willie Watkins (left) and Herbert Kirkpatrick (right) are the competitive Co Captains of the 1969-70 "COURTSTERS" tennis team.

To my Parents,
Kaye and William Strawther

C O N G R A T U L A T I O N S !

Message... by
Doris Smith

Is it a crime to have black skin?
Just think about it first,
Abused and scorned the Black has been;
Depised and even worse.

For life we will possess a scar
Because we are Black folk.
To us we are the best by far,
To them a spiteful joke.

Black skin is not a crime at all!
My friend, this is a fact.
With love we stand, with hate we fall;
Be proud that you are black!

Stand up, Black Skins, it is no crime,
Stand up for your Black race!
Have soul! Be bold! You have no time
To change your "cool" black face.
2-13-70

The natural look continued to be popular around Dunbar this year. LEONORA JOHNSON, SHELLIE SIMS, MICHAEL MORRIS, AND GROVER SESSION were among the hundreds who adopted this popular look.
